Community groups share £4,000 in Dragons' Den style funding event

by Peter Hodges
peter@viewnews.co.uk

SIX Honiton community groups have been given a massive boost following a 'Dragons' Den' style event which saw £4,000 distributed between them.

Representatives from the Honiton groups packed into the Beehive to take part in the third annual Honiton Dragons' Den, which is a community funding event.

The event was organised by local group Honiton Together, alongside members of Action East Devon, East Devon District Council, Devon County Council and Honiton Town Council.

The £4,000, which was distributed among the groups, came from county councillors Sara Randall-Johnson and Paul Diviani's locality budgets, Honiton Town Council, and funds leftover from last year (£1,000 from each).

This year's winners were Honiton Youth Group, who asked for £500 for a painting sleepover – an idea generated by members of the youth group.

One of the three young people pitching included Connor, a severely disabled young man whose confidence has grown enormously since the youth group won funding for a ramp at last year's event.

Luke Harvey Ingram, Honiton Youth Group chairman said: "A fantastic bid from our young members has secured more funding which is being used to repaint some of the CUB (the youth group building).

"The judges were once again left really impressed with the professionalism of Honiton Youth Club's members, a true testament to just how much potential there is in our community."

In close second place was Honiton Community Action Trust who gave a moving pitch to the audience about The Olive Grove project, which helps individuals and families suffering from a variety of addictions, whether it be drugs, alcohol, food or gambling.

The Olive Grove won £750 towards their start-up costs, which will help them provide a free service to those most in need of their support.

In third place was Honiton Brass Band whose pitch included three young people playing their trumpets.

The band requested £750 to support the purchase of beginners' instruments, which they will use to provide free lessons for beginners who join them.

Three other groups were also awarded funding:

- Hands on Horticulture - who provide unusual day care facilities in the form of gardening and outdoor crafts won £750, which will enable them to purchase an outdoor compost loo and to widen a caravan door for wheelchair users.
- Honiton Community Church - won £720 for tables for a new building, which they will be using near Streamers Meadow in the town. This furniture will mean they can run everything from lunches and games afternoons to arts and crafts sessions.
- Branching Out - a vegetable growing project for people with Learning Disabilities based at Bicton College, won £530 towards waterproof clothes (to be kept on site, to enable users to keep working once bad weather sets in).

Each of the groups had three minutes to pitch for funding and had brought props and even scripts for their performance.

After the three minutes were up, the four dragons had five minutes to 'interrogate' each group. The dragons on this year's panel were Cllr Sara Randall-Johnson, Jamie Buckley (community engagement and funding officer for East Devon District Council), Dave Slocombe (project manager for Devon County Council) and Honiton town councillor Anne Mountjoy.

This innovative event, which was organised jointly between Ali Eastland (locality worker for Devon County Council), Alex Gibson (community development worker for East Devon District

NHS trust announce new chief executive

Suzanne Tracey

SUZANNE Tracey is the new chief executive of the Royal Devon & Exeter NHS Foundation Trust.

The trust, which manages community hospitals in East Devon, has recruited Ms Tracey from within.

She has been the trust's director of finance & business development, deputy chief executive and chief financial officer and, more recently, acting chief executive.

Ms Tracey will take up her post with immediate effect.

RD&E chairman James Brent said: "Suzanne has been a key member of the trust's well-regarded executive team for almost eight years and has made a significant contribution to the success of the RD&E during this time.

"She brings with her extensive NHS experience having worked at a senior level in a number of acute trusts and a commissioning organisation.

"She also has in-depth local knowledge of the trust and the wider health economy and a compelling vision for how she would like the trust to develop over time.

"Suzanne has done an outstanding job over the last few months as interim chief executive and I believe the trust will continue to go from strength to strength under her leadership."

Commenting on her appointment, Suzanne said: "I am honoured to be appointed to this role and it will be a privilege to serve our patients and staff.

"I know full well that the RD&E is a superb organisation that delivers the very best care to the people who need it, largely because we have incredibly committed and compassionate staff who do their utmost for the people in their care.

"This is a time of profound change in the NHS but I and my fellow board members are fully committed to helping to steer the trust through the challenges we face so that we continue to provide safe, high quality care delivered with courtesy and respect to the communities we serve."

Mother and child left fighting for their lives after A35 smash

POLICE are appealing for witnesses after a six-year-old girl and her mother were left fighting for their lives following a collision on the A35 last Friday (November 18th) evening.

The pair both sustained life-threatening injuries. The girl was taken to Southmead Hospital in Bristol, while her mother was taken to Derriford Hospital in Plymouth.

Six people in total were taken to hospital and three ambulances were called.

Two cars were involved in the collision near Kilmington at 11:50pm.

A spokesperson for Devon and Cornwall Police said: "A silver BMW car travelling towards Axminster was in collision with a green Renault Megane car, which was travelling in the opposite direction.

"As a result of the collision, the driver and believed sole occupant of the BMW suffered serious injuries, including a broken neck.

"The Renault had a driver and four passengers. Two of the passengers, including a six-year-old child, sustained life threatening injuries. The driver and another passenger sustained life changing injuries."

Police say they would like to speak to anyone with information regarding the accident. The police can be contacting on 101 quoting log number 823.

AUTUMN IN THE COLY VALLEY by Richard Austin

Tourism's £3.5 million boost to the economy in East Devon

NEW figures recently released reveal that the value of tourism in East Devon is on the rise.

In 2015 alone, tourism contributed £3.5 million more to the local economy than it did in 2014, rising to £252.5 million.

The figures come from a new report provided to Visit South Devon and the Devon Tourism Partnership, which analyses trends in tourism year-on-year. The latest findings show that UK-originated and overseas trips to East Devon increased by four per cent to 521,000 trips in 2015, compared to 502,000 trips 2014. The average number of nights per East Devon trip rose by eight per cent, around 166,000 additional nights in the area.

Commenting on the findings, Sarah Stride, Acting General Manager for Visit South Devon, which is responsible for the marketing of Mid and East Devon following its merger with Heart of Devon in September, said: "The latest economic impact figures show a positive trend with growing visitor numbers and increasing spend. This demonstrates the clear economic importance of tourism and shows the need to continue marketing all the many attractions of East Devon to visitors, both domestically and internationally. Despite a drop in day trips, which can in part be explained by the unsettled weather over the main school holidays, the average amount spent on day trips was up overall."

Associated spend by tourists visiting from outside the local area leapt by £7.6 million to £117.3 million in 2015, however income from day trips fell by £4.1 million to just over £135 million, equivalent to a three per cent drop.

Looking forward to the 2016 tourism figures, Visit South Devon believes that the upward trend in visits to East Devon, and overall spend, is likely to continue.

Ms Stride added: "2016 has been a solid year for tourism aided by the long Indian summer and growth in demand for 'staycations' following Brexit. East Devon's captivating countryside, its stunning Jurassic coastline and many tourist attractions have helped to entice visitors back year after year, and with new reasons to visit, such as the Pig at Combe and Seaton Jurassic, we have every confidence that the upward trend will continue, especially once the new super Area Tourism Partnership website for Mid, East and South Devon launches later this year."

MP calls for more money for social care

Peter Hodges
East Devon reporter

EAST Devon MP Sir Hugo Swire has called on the Government to provide extra funding for social care in East Devon.

In the House of Commons last week, Sir Hugo tackled Health Minister David Mowat on the subject, asking: "'Northern, Eastern and Western Devon clinical commissioning group is already consulting on the possible closure of community beds across Devon. The social care budget in East Devon, an area of elderly people, and the rest of the county is already under severe pressure. That pressure will inevitably increase if community beds are closed. Will the Secretary of State therefore commit to putting those points to the Chancellor of the Exchequer in the run-up to the autumn statement?"

Sir Hugo Swire

In his response the Minister explained that whilst he was unable to provide a "running commentary" on discussions with the Treasury, he had taken Sir Hugo's comments on board.

The East Devon MP also wrote to the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Philip Hammond, on the issue of social care budgets. Sir Hugo said: "The NEW Devon Clinical Commissioning Group has recently published proposals to close a number of beds across East Devon. I am not against a reconfiguration of our local NH*S* per se – few could dispute the fact that a great number of people, and especially elderly people, could avoid having to be admitted to hospital if effective preventative treatment were given. When sufficient preventative treatment is not in place, however, our community hospitals are often used as a very expensive social care service. Indeed, it is undeniable that the hospital bed provision is expensive – the Lead Chief Executive of Devon's Success Regime, Angela Pedder, has said that the cost of running a 16-bed community hospital ward is £75,000 per month but care at home could look after 82 people per month for the same money.

"I am concerned that we are putting the cart before the horse. Before removing the hospital beds, we need to ensure that the social care provision which prevents people from needing those beds in the first place is sufficient. As it stands at the moment, with council budgets for social care falling behind demand by £5 billion nationally, I am concerned that the loss of hospital beds will not be compensated by the social care system, resulting in an overall and unacceptable loss of healthcare provision. This would be particularly damaging in East Devon, where 27.7% of people are aged 65 or over compared to 17.7% nationally. 'In my opinion, the only answer to this complex issue is an increase in the social care budget which would not only be good for patients but, ultimately, reduce the pressure on the NHS budget. I would be grateful if you could seriously consider this matter prior to the Autumn Statement"

Gallery's youth group perform at Kew Gardens

LOCAL youngsters from the Thelma Hulbert Gallery's youth group have performed at a special Grow Wild Awards evening at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew, London.

The group were invited to put on their performance 'Gardening The Gallery' using three-dimensional shadow puppetry they had created with artist Tom McDonagh.

Playing tribute to one of Kew's most famous botanists, Joseph Hooker, the youngsters brought his intrepid explorations in the Himalayas to life.

As guests arrived they put on 3D spectacles to take in the intriguing visuals being projected from the Grow Wild shed.

The hand-crafted props featured mountains, plants, botanic specimens and insects and told the story of Hooker's plant collecting and discovery of rare orchid species. THG had won funding for the project through a Grow Wild grant from Kew Gardens.

Tom McDonagh had worked with students from Honiton Community College, THG's youth group Masterpieces and Honiton's SWITCH group.

These groups created shadow puppets in their 'Gardening The Gallery' sessions with Tom, and produced their own 3D shadow puppetry film.

Tom McDonagh said: "For many of the participants this was the first time they had been in a public art gallery and tried filmmaking, and they really enjoyed the sessions."

Kate Allardyce, Grow Wild's engagement officer said: "The audience were delighted to see the unusual 3D visual effects coming right out into the space and what a lovely way to start the Grow Wild celebration evening at Kew. Thanks to the young people, artist and Thelma Hulbert gallery for creating this beautiful, ambient show."

Millennium Green AGM

HONITON'S Millennium Green committee will be holding their Annual General Meeting on November 24th at The Vine Inn on Honiton High Street.

The meeting starts at 7pm and all are welcome.

The big switch-on

HONITON'S Christmas Lights are shining all over the town, after residents gathered at St Paul's on Saturday (November 19th) for the official switch-on. Ava Marker Morgan, the granddaughter of the owners of Clinton Estates who donated this year's massive Christmas Tree, did the honours. The town's lights look excellent once again, following the recent fundraising undertaken by the Chamber of Commerce. Ava turned on the Christmas lights following a short introduction and a very humorous cry by Dave Retter, Honiton's town crier. There was a traditonal countdown from ten before the button was pushed. Ava is pictured above with the town crier.

Local groups share £4,000 of funding

Council) and Sarah Reeves (development worker for Action East Devon), has come about thanks to the Honiton Together scheme, which two years ago secured over £15,000 of funding for developing partnerships across the voluntary and statutory sector in Honiton.

"It is hoped that the 'Dragons' Den' initiative will prove a lasting legacy for the Honiton community.

Councillor Paul Diviani, county councillor for Honiton said: "I'm delighted to have contributed from my DCC Locality Budget to the increasingly popular Honiton Dragons' Den at the Beehive.

"It amazes me that a relatively modest contribution generates so much enthusiasm and achieves so much. Well done everyone!"

Councillor Jill Elson, East Devon District Council's portfolio holder for sustainable homes and communities, said: "The Dragons' event is a very successful event organised in partnership with Alex, one of our excellent community development workers, alongside Action East Devon, Honiton Town Council and Devon County Council.

"It enables Honiton charities, who work with local people to achieve their individual potential, self esteem and to be more confident.

"These charities are also able to 'network', which allows them to learn about each others' work and to work in partnership to gain best value from their fundraising activities and the excellent services they provide."

Runaway teen returns home after ten weeks

ARTHUR HEELER-FROOD APOLOGISES TO POLICE, FAMILY AND FRIENDS HAVING SLEPT ROUGH IN LONDON, BIRMINGHAM AND MANCHESTER

AXMINSTER teenager Arthur Heeler-Frood has apologised to the police and his family and friends after disappearing and sleeping rough for 10 weeks.

The 15-year-old Colyton Grammar School student from Membury, near Axminster, went missing on Tuesday, September 6th and was spotted on a train last Tuesday, exactly 10 weeks later. His parents received a letter the morning after he went missing, explaining that he ran away because he was "bored" of his life and he would be back within a year.

Arthur was reading George Orwell's Down and Out in Paris and London – the classic tale of living on a shoestring – when he disappeared.

Arthur Heeler-Frood

In a statement issued last Wednesday after being reunited with his family, Arthur said: "I have spent the last 10 weeks exploring London, Birmingham and Manchester by foot, sleeping rough at night.

"I am very grateful to everyone who has helped my family in trying to ensure my safe return. I apologise to the police for the time they spent looking for me and for the worry I have caused family and friends."

His parents Jeremy and Caroline Heeler-Frood said: "We are overjoyed to have Arthur home with us again; tired, grubby and rather smelly but otherwise none the worse for his experiences. We feel extremely lucky that he is safe and sound.

"Many thanks to Devon and Cornwall Police for their professionalism and their tireless search for Arthur.

"Thank you also to the media for their help in raising awareness of his disappearance and our deep gratitude to all our friends and family who have supported us through this difficult time.

"We now wish to spend some time in private with Arthur to settle him back home and to make some plans for his future."

Arthur took £350 in cash with him, but did not take his phone, passport or many belongings.

He was picked up by police at Honiton train station after being spotted by a member of the public.

His return follows recent coverage of his disappearance in the national press this week and an emotional appeal from his parents Jeremy and Caroline Heeler-Frood on ITV show 'This Morning' earlier this month.

Police officers would like to thank the member of the public who called in and also thank everyone who has assisted with the appeal to find Arthur over the last two months.

CCG member in front of scrutiny committee

EAST Devon District Council's scrutiny committee will get the opportunity to grill members of the NEW Devon Clinical Commissioning Group later this week.

An as yet unnamed member of the CCG will appear in front of the Scrutiny Committee on Thursday, November 24th from 6pm.

The representative will be questioned over the recently launched consultation document 'Your Future Care'.

The scrutiny committee will also debate NHS property services. According to the committee's agenda, 'NHS Property Services have not responded to a request to attend the committee to speak about the transfer of community hospital buildings from Northern Devon Healthcare Trust to NHS Property Services'.

Extra help for sexual assault victims

VICTIMS of sexual assault and abuse in Devon and Cornwall will be helped by extra funding from NHS England.

The team of Police and Crime Commissioner Alison Hernandez worked closely with NHS England to secure more than £150,000.

This additional funding will enhance the services provided by sexual assault referral centres (SARCs) in the two counties. The funding focuses on two developments. Firstly, it will enhance the SARCs' capacity to offer psychological and medical support to victims of sexual assault over weekends.

Currently, at weekends, this service is only available to people who report an assault to the police.

The biggest part of the funding will pay for three new children and young people's Independent Sexual Violence Advisors (ChISVAs).

Two will cover East and West Cornwall for the victim support charity Skoodhya. The other will join the SARC in Plymouth, run by Twelves Company, a Devon and Cornwall sexual violence and domestic abuse support charity

Sally Piper, Skoodhya chief executive said: "We are delighted with the additional funding from NHS England and grateful for the support from the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner.

"This will allow us to provide a dedicated specialist service for children and young people affected by sexual violence as this is something we have wanted to do for a long time."

Vanessa Fowler of NHS England said: "There are excellent sexual assault services in these areas, delivered by local organisations. NHS England is pleased to be able to support this work with additional funding to meet the needs of victims and their families."

DEVON'S largest beer producer has been 'Highly Commended' at what former Prime Minister David Cameron called 'the Oscars of great British business'.

This year's prestigious Lloyds Bank National Business Awards ceremony took place in front of 1,200 people at Grosvenor House in London.

Otter Brewery were recognised in the the Grichan Partnership Sustainable Business Award category.

Brewery founders David and Mary Ann McCaig were joined on the night by eldest son and director Patrick and his wife Tor.

The 'Highly Commended' achievement comes as the business finishes celebrating its first 25 years as a family owned regional brewery supplying pubs, sports clubs and venues across the South West and beyond.

The finalists were chosen from the hundreds of businesses that entered across 18 award categories with live presentations to an expert judging panel being used to decide the overall winners.

The criteria for the Grichan Partnership Sustainable Business Award specifically looked for 'initiatives that have embedded ethical or sustainable business practices, helped staff deliver better customer service, increased market share or customer loyalty and supported strong leadership and management'.

Otter Brewery, which is based near Luppitt, finished second in their category of 10 shortlisted businesses and received one of only three 'Highly Commended' accolades given by judges across the 18 categories.

Patrick McCaig, Otter Brewery director, said: "I'm so proud of all our boys and girls who make Otter what it is.

"To be up against the rest of the country and get such recognition for our approach to sustainability is a real coup – we only just missed out on the top spot by a whisker.

"From very humble beginnings that really came about through mum and dad's pioneering vision, the brewery today remains true to those engrained family values, strong eco credentials and a desire to support the local community.

"Everything we do comes from the heart and that is one of the biggest ingredients to successfully maintaining Otter Brewery for now and the future."

School council votes to give harvest donations to food bank

OFFWELL Primary School have given their harvest donation to their chosen charity of the year – Honiton Food Bank.

Every year the school's council nominate a charity they wish to support during the year.

Although the council voted to donate to a local charity, there were some councillors who felt the donation should go overseas. Councillors agreed to discuss the options at their next meeting.

Mrs Hunt, the teacher who facilitates the council meetings said: "I was impressed with the democratic decision making and consideration exhibited by all the councillors from age four to 11.

"We had a very busy agenda but they took all the issues seriously."

Matt is top library Lego builder

MATT Kujawski's model of a library book, which takes its readers on an adventure, sealed top spot in Seaton Library's Lego competition for adults.

The competition theme was 'Active Life, Active Mind' and library supervisor Pene Davis said: "Matt had stiff competition from models of the Seaton outdoor gym keeping people active, a model of Seaton Hospital helping people back into active lives and a model of a library providing a meeting place for people from all over the world.

"We have more Active Life, Active Mind events in the library during November – a Mindful Colouring session and a Board Games Cafe on Thursday, November 24th from 10.30am–11.30am.

"The events is free and all are welcome to join in."

The Lego competition was held on Saturday, November 5th, and the entries were judged the following week.

Big turnout for parkrun

SEATON Parkrun organisers were 'staggered' to have almost 200 participants for the opening event, some having travelled quite the distance to participate.

Parkrun is an international phenomenon with an aim to 'make the world a healthy and happier place' by offering exercise for all ages and abilities.

Seaton Parkrun co-event director Carol Austin said: "We were staggered and delighted to have 188 runners at our first parkrun in Seaton, especially in misty drizzle.

"Runners from as far afield as Cheshire, Birmingham and Bristol came to join the inaugural parkrun and, after completing the run, filled the cafes along the Esplanade.

"More than 60 had never done a parkrun before."

She added: "We had seven under 10s and seven runners over 70 years old.

"We also had a very even gender split. The fastest runners were impressive but so were those who walked bits of the route.

"The big smiles on their faces at the end were a joy to see. We know that these runners will be back and will slowly shave vital seconds off their time while getting fitter and healthier.

"Unfortunately, due to the pebbles, the route is unsuitable for wheelchairs or buggies.

"However, we were delighted to welcome our first partially sighted runner along with her guide-runner."

Organisers stress that parkrun also offers a social aspect as it relies on volunteers to marshal, time and process the results.

Carol said: "For some people the chance to volunteer brings new friends and a greater feeling of belonging.

"This is central to parkrun's ethos of having fun and belonging to a local community. We received many compliments about our amazing team of volunteers from runners on the day and afterwards on social media.

"The parkrun code clearly states that all runners must be mindful of the local environment and other users.

"This is something we are very aware of and will emphasise every week at the pre-run briefing. We want Seaton to welcome parkrun and the obvious benefits it will bring. November 12th was a tremendous start and long may it continue.

"Parkrun's mission is 'to make the world a healthy and happier place'. I hope we can contribute a small bit through parkrun in Seaton."

Seaton Parkrun 5k will be held every Saturday, starting at 9am at the Espalnade.

Anyone interested in volunteering or running can come along on the day or find more information at parkrun.org.uk/seaton

A time to reflect for Testudo writer-director

Anders Larsson meets MICK REDSTON

HAVING written and directed Testudo Musical Players' 'Midsummer Nightmare' in Seaton, Mick Redston has had time to reflect and is after the next challenge.

He has decades of showbiz experience under his belt, which started when he was "dragged into" a play for a two-line role when very young.

Mick, who was born in Kingston upon Thames in 1947, said: "Mum (Grace) was in an operatic society and dad (Norman) was in a drama group, so I saw musicals and plays as well as concerts in old people's homes et cetera from a fairly young age.

"Dad did conjuring at kids' parties and also played piano."

After leaving school, he "fiddled around" for a few months and his mother asked: "Isn't it about time you got a job?"

This is exactly what Mick did, securing a place in the pensions department of financial services company Prudential.

An added bonus was that Prudential had a 600-seat theatre on top of the building, and Mick jumped at the chance to get involved straight away.

At one stage he was on the verge of giving up the day job and go professional, when offered an audition with touring company D'Oyly Carte in the early 70s.

Mick summed it up by saying: "I was in a production of The Pirates of Penzance at Prudential when offered the audition.

"But I asked the wrong question – how much do you get paid? – and also had a wisdom tooth operation at that time and couldn't open my mouth for three months.

"I'm glad I didn't do it [go professional], it is not as glamorous as you think."

But there was a career change when he moved from Prudential to engineering group Delta, which meant a move to Solihull.

Mick and his wife Liz, whom he had met during a production of Oklahoma in which she was a dancer, quickly got involved with the showbiz scene there.

For example, Mick was the musical director of two shows at the Birmingham Hippodrome.

The couple moved to Seaton about ten years ago and the pattern repeated itself as they quickly joined the local showbiz scene.

Mick was asked to become musical director of Confidance, and Testudo Musical also got in touch.

The latter asked him to be musical director for Boyfriend about five years ago, and the partnership has continued.

Mick Redston

Most recently Mick wrote every note, chord and word for Testudo Musical's Midsummer Nightmare.

NODA reviewer Graham Liverton was impressed and wrote: "I hope that Mick Redston was pleased with this production.

"Testudo, who had the courage to stage a new and unknown show, should be congratulated."

Mick feels there is always an element of uncertainty involved, and said: "Until the first night you don't really know what is going to happen, if it's going to work or not."

When asked about lasting memories from Midsummer Nightmare, he said: "The reaction from the people who were in the show.

"The card they all signed and gave me at the end contains some really great comments and I hope doing Midsummer Nightmare will be something the youngsters, in particular, will look back on in years to come as an experience well worth having."

About the future, he said: "There's a few people interested in looking at the show and I'm hoping that somebody will do it.

"I might also write a few more bits because you never stop looking."

Axminster aims to raise £6,000 to sponsor a doctor in Syria

OVER the course of the past year Axminster Churches Together has sent 300 boxes of clothing to Iraq and Syria in response to an appeal made by a young British mother from Brighton called Samara Levy, who works under the auspices of the international charity 'Feed The Hungry'.

This autumn the focus of the appeal has shifted to providing medical aid as Samara's Appeal has set up two hospitals in Syrian cities, one of them in Aleppo, and has just started raising money for a third.

In Axminster and the surrounding villages there has been great concern for the desperate situation in Syria.

Daily reports of barrel bombs, rocket attacks and worse, in towns and cities and the suffering of ordinary families make us all feel that something must be done.

The innocent victims, the children, do not understand the devastation and their suffering.

Their future is foremost in our minds. Many of them, injured and traumatised, have lost their families as well.

Axminster could make the difference between life and death for many Syrian families. Initially the aim is simply to raise £6,000 to sponsor a doctor in Syria for a year.

If our aim is exceeded, we will be able to support a further doctor or fund vital equipment. What better way for our community to help others at this time of year?

How might we raise the money?

- Donate, in an envelope marked Samara's Aid Appeal, and take it to either Axminster, Raymond's Hill, or Millwey post office using the coupon if you wish.
- Come to lunch in the Guildhall on Saturday, December 3rd (11.30 am to 2 pm)) cost £5 (children free) - no booking needed.
- Support the 'New to You' stall at the lunch; lots of Christmas present ideas.
- Support the collection on Minster Green on Thursday, December 1st in the morning.
- Hold a collection at your place of work, or amongst your friends.
- Support Rotary on Thursday, December 22nd at their collection in Tesco. Their Christmas appeal will be generously donated to this appeal.
- Donate online: transfer money through Barclays Bank to 'Samara's Aid Appeal', sort Code 20-61-55, account number 23735869 and reference it 'Axminster'.

Support from the mayor

AXMINSTER mayor, Paul Hayward, writes in support: "The need in Syria is great. To have pictures in the paper and on television of the havoc and devastation is harrowing when we, in Axminster, live in relative safety. This appeal, which is supported by the town council, is an opportunity for the people of Axminster to show compassion for our fellow human beings. Even if your contribution can only be modest, I commend the appeal to everyone. It will show that Axminster is a caring community."

Women's Institutes ROUND UP

AXE RIVER: At the November meeting the guest speaker Claire Barrow talked about gemstones. She brought fascinating pieces with her, and her beautiful handmade jewellery, tempting members to start Christmas shopping!

As the branch is celebrating its third year members indulged in birthday cake made by Gill Tester.

The forthcoming visit to Exeter Cathedral for the WI Carol Concert was discussed and also the third birthday party at the Ridgeway Hotel.

COLYFORD: On November 2nd Anne Dalton spoke on fine bone china, enhanced with anecdotes of life on the craft fair circuit and exquisite examples.

Over tea members took part in a mince pie blind tasting. Members were told about arrangements for the Christmas Party. Since the last meeting some ladies had enjoyed a coffee morning and there will be a lunch in November. Members will form teams for the Group Quiz later in November and final numbers were taken for an outing to the Christmas Market in Bath. At the December meeting menu choices and payment will be taken for the New Year's Meal in January. For more information contact Elizabeth Harding on 01297 624250.

HONITON EVENING: At the November meeting members got into the Christmas spirit making seasonal snowmen, some of which may be seen on branch's tree at the Christmas Tree Festival in St Pauls Church.

Sue Bewsey's 'Cauliflower Sheep' won the recent competition. Plans were finalised for trips to the Chinese State Circus, Saltram House for Christmas and the Christmas Dinner at Honiton Golf Club. The walking group continues and trips to films at The Beehive are proposed.

KILMINGTON: Jan and Brian Lawless sang songs mainly from the 50s and 60, encouraging joining in the choruses.

After over 80 years in the village, members sadly voted to suspend the branch: lack of members and old age had made it unsustainable. Advisor Jenny Roberts helped with procedure.

There is still the December meeting on the 8th, with speaker Mina Fountain on bhajis and dips.

SEATON: Members of Colyford & District Flower Club demonstrated arrangements for the festive season.

Arrangements were made for the Christmas party on December 13th and the New Year lunch at The Dolphin, Beer. Names were taken for February's County Quiz.

The first meeting of 2017 will be on January 17th, 2.15pm at Seaton Methodist Church Small Hall, with a talk on My Seaton by Jim Knight.

THORNCOMBE: The speaker was Jane, co-owner of an Axminster stationery shop and printing company, who demonstrated making Christmas decorations.

Paper flower competition: 1 Sheila Staples, 2 Julia Snellock, 3 Margaret Retter. Flower of the month: Julia Snellock.

The Christmas meal will be on December 13th at Fairwater Head Hotel, and the first meeting of 2017 will comprise social time in the village hall, with tea and cake, on January 10th from 2.30 pm, hosted by the Committee.

Watercolour demo

AXMINSTER ART SOCIETY: Members welcomed watercolourist, Lynda Kettle, from Birmingham, who was a BBC production set designer and was always involved with art or theatre design. She moved to Tipton St John last year and has a studio in Sidmouth where she paints, teaches and takes commissions.

"Watercolours are the most difficult of all media," she said, but her entertaining demonstration addressed some of the problems.

Hand-in day for the AppleTree Gallery exhibition is Monday, November 28th, 1.30–2.30.

Literary festival draws more than 200 visitors

THE first Shute Festival of Literature and Landscape proved a huge success, drawing more than 200 visitors to two days of stimulating and inspiring talks, film showings, workshops and discussions.

The festival, held on October 29th and 30th, brought together an eclectic range of speakers, ensuring visitors enjoyed a rich variety of topics in the intimate and beautiful surroundings of Shute Church, lit professionally for the occasion by Axe Valley Community College student Jed Holmes of Simply Stage.

The first day opened with Greta Stoddart reading from her moving and life-affirming third collection of poems, Alive Alive O.

This was followed by historian Andrew Lownie speaking about the slippery and enigmatic spy Guy Burgess.

Afternoon highlights included Laurence Anholt reading from his new and now prescient young adults' crossover novel, The Hypnotist; Paddy Magrane talking about the links between Freud and crime fiction; and Deborah Dunham revealing the extraordinary story of the restoration of a neglected garden in the heart of Kabul.

In the evening, visitors were treated to a poignant talk from BBC Correspondent Diana Darke, who spoke from personal experience about life in Damascus and the wider Syrian conflict.

Historian and classicist Bijan Omrani opened Sunday's events with a fascinating insight into Afghanistan's rich culture and history.

Next up were the founder of Bradt travel guides, Hilary Bradt, and Bradt guide contributor Janice Booth, who delighted the audience with tales of hitchhiking, camel rides, missed flights and other adventures in some of the world's most far-flung destinations.

The afternoon's audiences enjoyed documentary maker Simon Deeley's enthralling film about Argentina's obsession with psychoanalysis; an extraordinary account of half a century of Amazonian exploration by leading botanist and former director of Kew Gardens, Professor Sir Ghillean Prance; Robert Twigger discussing the multi-layered Himalayas; and Jason Webster talking about the dark Mediterranean underbelly at the heart of his crime novels.

Children also enjoyed art workshops with artist Letice Littlewood, making a short film with three documentary film makers, and outdoor bread making, clay modelling and bushcraft with Penny Evans of the East Devon AONB.

Visitors were able to buy books (and get them signed by authors) at Tim Pritchard's pop-up Archway Bookshop in the church.

They also tucked into Indian cuisine from Kilmington's Kushi Kitchen, Middle Eastern fare from Di Magrane and cakes and pastries made by Liz Gosling and her team of helpers.

The festival has made more than a £500 profit, with some sponsorship already secured for next year's event.

Money will be shared equally between St Michael's Church maintenance fund and Shute Primary School's garden campaign.

A separate amount of £300 was raised from coffee, tea and cake sales – money that will further boost the church's maintenance fund.

Festival co-director Samantha Knights is delighted with how the festival was received, saying: "We could not have hoped for a better opening weekend.

"We've had amazing feedback, with visitors genuinely bowled over by the stimulating speakers and the intimate, rural location. We're already planning next year's event."

New nursery unit opens at Hawkchurch school

DELIGHTED: Pupils enjoy the new facilities

AUTUMN has seen change at Hawkchurch Primary School, the most significant being the arrival of the pre-schoolers in the new nursery unit.

A great effort was made by staff and parents last term to get the school ready for their arrival with the building of an outdoor play area with a mud kitchen and water play stations as well as new decking.

A school spokesperson said: "Hawkchurch Primary School would like to thank Bradfords, Westcrete, Alex Watson and Mole Avon for the supplies donated for the new decking.

"They would also like to thank the parents for giving their time freely to build it and establish a new pond area.

"The children are also delighted with the new purpose-built library space and their school jumpers sporting the new logo."

The school is having an open day on Tuesday, November 22nd from 9am until 3pm to which everyone is welcome.

'Pub of the year' title for The Bottle

THE Bottle Inn in Marshwood has been named Regional Pub of the Year by the Campaign for Real Ale.

The pub had already won the title of Pub of the Year for the West Dorset branch, and it has now added the regional award to its tally.

This means that it has been selected as the number one pub in the Wessex region, which consists of 11 local CAMRA branches in Dorset, Wiltshire, Hampshire, Wiltshire, the Isle of Wight, Jersey and Guernsey.

Landlord Nigel Blake said: "I am still in shock and over the moon at being presented with this award.

"I would like to thank CAMRA for their support, the breweries for supplying us with such a great product, and most of all our customers for being here, for having the same enjoyment of beer as I do, and for making this possible."

CAMRA spokesperson Rich Gabe, who presented Nigel and his wife Chrissy with the award, said: "The Wessex region feels that The Bottle Inn at Marshwood is a superb example of a local's public house, free of tie, that can still offer an outstanding range of innovative and imaginative local and national beers.

"I am sure I will join other members of West Dorset CAMRA in wishing Nigel and Chrissy Blake all the best for progression into the next round of the Pub of the Year competition."

Dave Harris, West Dorset CAMRA chairman, said: "We are really delighted in the West Dorset Branch to see that this lovely country pub has been so successful.

"For a long time the pub was closed and we thought of it as a lost cause.

"Since reopening and keeping up the tradition of the annual nettle eating contest, Nigel and Chrissy have won our Pub Of the Year twice.

"Our view has now been reinforced by the wider CAMRA Wessex Area also judging it the best in Wessex this year, so we are doubly pleased!"

The Bottle Inn is now one of only 16 pubs in the country to be considered for the overall CAMRA National Pub of the Year title.

The next stage of the process sees the number of pubs reduced to a shortlist of four.

Fresh new look for Sidmouth Chiropractic and Natural Therapy Centre

AFTER thirteen years in business the Sidmouth Chiropractic & Natural Therapy Centre has a fresh new look, and is pleased to announce the launch of its website and facebook page too. Although primarily a Chiropractic clinic the team also offer a wide range of other complementary therapies such as Nutritional Medicine, Sports and Remedial Massage, Bowen Therapy, Craniosacral Therapy and Hypnotherapy.

The clinic also has a new logo, cleverly designed by owner and Chiropractor Julie Englefield. "I call it the spine tree, and it really epitomises my view of health. You have to get the basic structure right for healthy branches to grow, and for the tree to blossom. So when looking at any health complaint, assessing someone's structure is the perfect place to start" she said "When referral for other treatments is required, we have a great team of therapists who cover a wide range of health care issues" she added.

With such a fantastic team of health care professionals all under one roof, you can rest assured that you will receive continuity of care. In essence your healing journey can begin and end here. A very warm welcome awaits you at the Sidmouth Chiropractic & Natural Therapy Centre.

Colyton pupils spend week celebrating Diwali

■ SONG AND DANCE: Children took part in a drumming workshop with King G of the Dhol Blasters band and, below, in an Indian dance workshop

CHILDREN at Colyton Primary School recently spent a week celebrating Diwali.

Diwali is the Hindu festival of lights celebrated every year autumn to signify the victory of light over darkness, good over evil, knowledge over ignorance, and hope over despair.

A busy week of activities was organised for the children to learn more about the festival.

On Monday, pupils enjoyed an Indian feast with parents cooking Indian dishes for everyone to share. This was followed on Tuesday when representatives from Tesco visited as part of their 'Eat Happy' programme, and showed the children how to prepare an Indian dish.

On Wednesday, professional dance teacher Karina gave an Indian dance workshop with parents joining in at the end of the day and, on Thursday, activities in class included making diva lamps, learning about the festival of Diwali, Rama & Sita, and making rangoli patterns.

The week finished with King G of the Dhol Blasters Band leading each class in a high energy Indian drumming session, topped off with a performance during a special assembly with parents and family.

■ CELEBRATION: The whole school gets in the festival spirit during a drumming performance and, above, the pupils enjoyed trying Indian food during the week

'Unfair' changes to agency terms

■ HOW many people rely on care agencies for the care of themselves or their loved ones? I won't name the one my mother uses, but I feel it necessary to alert everyone to the fact that they have recently changed their terms and conditions, in what I believe to be an unfair way.

Up until now, if we wanted to spend a couple of days away to visit friends or relatives, we have been able to give adequate notice to the care agency, for them to be able to adjust their roster accordingly and we have not been charged. Periods in hospital due to sudden illness would also not have been charged.

Now, any absence from home for any reason, whether planned or not and whether they have had notice or not will be charged for in full. So a scenario now would be that if we wanted to have a week's break somewhere, I would have to find a care agency to look after my mother's needs, so she would have to pay for the agency that is doing the work, and pay in full for the other one that isn't doing anything. At the moment this is just one agency, but if they are seen by other agencies to be using this policy, without so much of a ripple of resistance, they will all follow suit because they would be at disadvantage not to do so. Eventually, there is going to be a vast amount of people's money going into the numerous agencies out there, for doing absolutely nothing to earn it. There was no discussion beforehand about this impending change, just a here it is, take it or leave it attitude.

Another fine example of a private company carrying out care within the community, riding roughshod over the people who employ them. They say the change is to provide a steady salary to their staff in order to retain them, but it is not our responsibility to fund a company's salary structure or staff retaining measures.

Charity card shop access

■ I WAS very disappointed (and cross on a cold day) to find access denied to me with my mobility scooter to purchase Charity cards in Axminster this year so have returned home empty handed. I was told the key wasn't available for the large door to be opened (which it should have been, apparently). My mobility is restricted, hence the scooter, and I feel that more mobility-impaired persons will be denied access because of the step involved to get into the ground floor shop, therefore depriving charities of income.

ANNE VEAR,

Seaton Parkrun thanks

■ WE would like to put on record our sincere thanks to the people of Seaton for their warm and friendly welcome to the 188 runners who took part in the first Seaton parkrun on November 5th.

We received many positive comments from participants who were a mixture of locals and visitors.

For us it was a wonderful inaugural event which captured the essence of parkrun. Runners ranged in age from 6 to well over 70; they were all shapes and sizes, and, of widely differing abilities. It's a free event which relies on volunteers and the 20 or so volunteers on Saturday who were mostly locals did an exceptional job.

The whole event showed Seaton at its best.

If you are a runner or would like to try running or would like to help out please come and join us any Saturday at 9am via parkrun.org.uk/seaton

Hospitals: are we well represented?

■ WHAT game are our local MPs and Conservative councillors playing over hospital bed closures? On the one hand they make impassioned speeches to retain beds and guarantee proper standards of social care. But when we look closer what do we find? Both MPs voted for the reorganisation of the NHS and the privatised system that has produced this top-down crisis. In the House of Commons on November 16th they both voted against a motion to ensure 'adequate and sustainable care' for vulnerable people and to secure adequate funding for services that are in deep crisis.

The local consultation is clearly one sided and a done deal and is deeply flawed since it does not properly address the true situation for Honiton hospital beds. Yet Honiton Tory member Cllr Paul Diviani on East Devon District Council failed to support a perfectly reasonable motion by Independent member Claire Wright to suspend the consultation.

In my experience 99 per cent of our community are against the CCG proposals which have come from the top and are in conflict with the NHS Consititution. People are entitled to consistent support from those who claim to represent them not only 'warm words' in public.

TONY SIMPSON,
Honiton

■ I REFER to the comments made by David Moseley, R Nix and Christopher Way in the November 15th View News regarding the situation with hospitals.

As with many people I am in agreement with most of the comments made. The decision makers are only thinking of the short term financial gains. The "money men" behind these poor decisions ignore the realities of life.

Whilst I understand the thinking behind Mr Way's comments in his last paragraph I feel sure that those who have campaigned against bed closures are likely to disagree. Certainly they appear to have had some influence on East Devon MP Hugo Swire who is now beginning to get a grasp of the situation. Campaigns such as theirs can assist in reaching the ears of people in authority.

I also notice that your regular contributor Derek Sturch is still struggling with the Brexit decision. Perhaps he could be encouraged to speak up for the benefit of us all with regard to the likes of hospital bed closures. Odds are that (including mine) one of the names mentioned here will require one at some stage in the future.

BOB TURNER,
Ottery St Mary

■ RE: the letter from Derek Sturch.

I thought we had heard the last of him and his silly remarks but sadly not. If he read the papers he would know that if the NHS could be bothered to collect all the money owed to them from our friends from overseas it could be possible to build two new hospitals.

Maybe if he is so concerned he could apply for the job.

JEAN BRIGHT,
Honiton

■ ON page two of your November 15th publication, we are told that East Devon District Council Leader and Honiton's County Councillor Paul Diviani called the creation of an Enterprise Zone a 'Win-Win'. Whilst that might be true, I was horrified to read on the front page that he chose not to support Cllr Claire Wright's motion to suspend the Hospital bed closure consultation until Honiton and Okehampton were included. This would mean that staff and patients of Honiton Hospital could 'Lose-Lose' big time. May I remind Mr Diviani that he was elected to represent the best interest of the Honiton people and having failed to do so on this extremely important issue, I and residents of Honiton should remember to vote him 'Out-Out' at the next election.

MALCOLM LEE,
Honiton

Open days in Village Schools - come and visit

HAWKCHURCH C of E Primary School is 6 miles from Axminster in a beautiful rural village setting with panoramic views. The school consists of 2 classes - KS1 & KS2 - with a newly opened Nursery which takes children from 2 years of age. The federation became the Genesis Academy Trust in September 2016 and both Musbury and Hawkchurch have the twin benefits of being village schools whilst enjoying the wider resources and expertise offered by the academy.

Hawkchurch children enjoy the benefits of: Outdoor learning – very large grounds, with access to village field for sports, Fruit and vegetable garden, pond, wildlife area, bug hotel and a willow dome, New library, Close community ties, strong links with local toddler group and the church, Popular professional guitar lessons once a week, Various after school clubs, Residential opportunities and trips, Plays, concerts and celebration assemblies, Local volunteer helpers, Enthusiastic PTFA members.

As part of the Genesis Academy Trust, the school's pupil numbers are growing and the future is bright. Like its sister school Hawkchurch, Musbury enjoys excellent links with the local community and works alongside the Musbury Moles Pre-school group which is based on site. We are supported by many local volunteers who enhance the life of the school with their enthusiasm and knowledge of the local area.

CREWKERNE'S LIGHTING UP FOR CHRISTMAS!

CREWKERNE'S Annual Lighting Up event, organised by the Crewkerne Christmas Committee, is on Friday, 25 November 2016. This is always a popular event and this year should be no exception.

Many shops and cafes will stay open and there will be charity stalls in Falkland Square and The George Shopping Centre. Stalls selling bacon butties, roast chestnuts, mulled wine, hog roast and mince pies will also help to keep you fed and watered. The craft fair will be open in the Victoria Hall from 5.30pm.

For children there will be a Christmas treasure hunt and biscuit decorating at the Library from 4.30 pm and don't forget to enter the children's Christmas hat competition. The theme this year is "pom poms and Christmas". Judging will take place in Market Square at 5.55pm and entry is free. Just turn up wearing your creation.

There will be entertainment around the town; music in Market Square will be provided by Steve Carpenter and Phoenix Brass Band will play in Falkland Square from 6pm. Join the Carol singing with CUDOS, in Market Square from 6.30pm.

As usual the highlight of the evening will be when Santa makes his way down Market Street, escorted by the Merriott Majorettes, to help the Mayor and Town Crier turn on the Christmas lights at 7pm. Santa will then be in his Grotto in the Town Hall from 7.15pm to hear all your Christmas wishes.

Market Street will be closed to traffic from 6.45pm to 7.30pm to ensure public safety during the arrival of Santa and whilst the lights are switched on. Diversion routes will be signed and the road will be opened as soon as it is safe to do so.

A SEATON SUCCESS STORY

AN evening of Christmas shopping was held in Fore Street on Wednesday 16th November, involving Owl and Pyramid Bookshop, Genesis Vintage Interiors, and Gallery Usala. The shops were open from six, and customers were able to shop in a relaxed atmosphere with drinks and nibbles on hand.

"We've found these evening shopping times really successful", says Jenny, of Owl and Pyramid. "People are able to take time to browse and choose. And with a glass of something lovely and something to eat, customers can make an enjoyable evening of their shopping"

This was certainly the case at Genesis Vintage Interiors. As well as offering a range of beautiful gifts and home furnishings, ideal for Christmas shopping, owner Wendy was also celebrating four years of trading in Seaton. The shop was packed with regular customers who had come with good wishes and enjoyed a chance to browse and buy. "We had a wonderful evening," says Wendy. "It was lovely to see so many customers and friends, some had come a long way to be with us, to celebrate our four years, and we're looking forward to many more". Wendy sells hand painted furniture, home furnishings and Autentico Paint, and also undertakes personal commissions.

If you missed out on this Christmas Shopping event, you can catch up with these shops and many more on Friday 2nd December, when the Christmas lights are switched on, and late night shopping will be available all over Seaton. (Probably with mince pies and other goodies). Come and explore the shopping potential of this town, which is almost entirely independent shops. Seaton Shopping Christmas gifts sorted, and a well deserved coffee or bite to eat in one of our lovely cafes and restaurants.

ORGANIC WORX

ORGANIC Worx is an health food business dedicated to sustainability and organic living. It was born out of a desire to create a business that promotes seasonal, sustainable, organic living. Living and eating with our planet's natural yearly cycle, eating food that nature provides through the seasons, for our health and the health of the planet and future generations to come.

I have been in the health food retail trade for 15 years and a lot has changed in that time. My aim here now is to get as much local and UK grown food into the shop as I can and support local Organic produce, and promote local sustainability. We currently have Elbow farm (Beer) vegetables (when available), Locally roasted coffee from the Coffee Factory (Whitford) and Durassic Coffee company, local organic eggs from Bulstone farm at Branscombe who are now in the process of working towards rearing and processing organic chickens for the table.

I also offer naturopathic health advice from 30 years of knowledge gained from using Naturopathy and natural medicine to keep myself and my own family healthy. I am trained in Naturopathy and am now in my final year of a diploma in Herbal Medicine at the College of Naturopathic Medicine in London. Come and join us for a very warm welcome. I look forward to meeting you.

Felt Christmas Tree Ornament Tutorial

www.buddlycrafts.com
Handmade by Josie Day

STEP 1. Trace around the wooden Christmas tree shape onto your green and brown felt and cut out the required number of pieces. You will need two green tree fronts and one brown trunk for each ornament. I used a light green felt which, combined with bright buttons, gives a really modern feel to the project. Should you prefer a more traditional theme, simply use a darker felt and scarlet buttons.

Step 2. Place the mini buttons into a pleasing arrangement and then stitch securely using matching thread.

Step 3. Using green thread stitch around the tree shape, inserting a burlap loop at the top and the brown trunk piece at the bottom.

Step 4. If you are making the free standing version, colour a craft stick with brown felt-tip pen and insert along with your stuffing.

Step 5. Insert the craft stick into a large wooden bead or wooden sewing bobbin.

Step 6. That's it! Now simply give your new handmade ornament pride of place amongst your other decorations!

Laser Therapy

Photobiomodulation is the application of red and near infra-red light over injuries to increase the speed, quality and tensile strength of tissue repair; resolve inflammation and relieve pain.

The effects are photochemical (like photosynthesis in plants). When the correct intensity and treatment times are applied, red and near infrared light reduces oxidative stress and increases ATP. This improves cell metabolism and reduces inflammation.

PBM Therapy appears too good to be true as it does many things, but really it does just one thing very well, reduces oxidative stress. This is accepted as the underlying trigger for most diseases and degenerative conditions. It is also a component in the inflammatory phase of acute and chronic injuries.

It is popularly used for acute and chronic pain on soft tissue injuries, joint conditions such as osteo and rheumatoid arthritis, neuropathic pain, post operation recovery and general body aches.

Anti-Gravity Treadmill

We are the only private clinic in the South West and one of only fifteen private clinics in the UK to offer this therapy to the public.

Engineered by NASA, the Anti-Gravity Treadmill 'unweights' the user by as much as 80% in precise 1% increments allowing them to move at a reduced bodyweight. This accurate, safe and comfortable partial weight-bearing therapy promotes normal gait patterns, unlike hydrotherapy, whilst significantly minimising the impact on joints and muscles to aid a smooth recovery. The system provides a safe and pain-free environment for use in physical therapy sessions at any stage of the rehabilitation process, including:

- Soft tissue injuries
- Post operatiion rehabilitation
- Weight loss
- Coordination (motor neuron, parkinsons)
- Performance training

Plantar Pressure Analysis

Our system offers analysis of walking and or running over the RS footscan mat. With over 4000 sensors embedded into it we gain in depth analysis of your foot positions, pressure and force distributed during the motion, in both 2D and 3D. The advanced software allows automatic division of the foot into specific regions. This allows force and pressure distribution within these areas to be analysed and associated with certain foot mechanics and functions which may affect the kinetic chain of your gait.

Custom 3D Printed Orthotics

Offering the world's first dynamic 3D printed orthotics as the UK's opening distributor. They are customised to support the every move of an individual from our pressure plate analysis.

It is this 3D print system that gave Paula Radcliffe a come back in 2015 "Without the support of these orthotics, I would have been incapable of recovering this quickly after my operations, this would have probably been the end of my career." 'Paula Radcliffe 2015'

Chard Christmas Lights Switch On Saturday 26th November

CHARD is gearing up for another spectacular illuminated festive display this year, with the addition of 99 Christmas trees, set to make the annual Christmas light switch on the biggest and best yet.

The grand ceremony to unveil the decorations and light up the town for yuletide will take place on Friday 25th November, with the evening of revelry commencing at 6pm.

Father Christmas will be making an appearance as well as the Chard Evolution Majorettes, who will entertain the crowds with their usual exuberance alongside Chard's Carnival Princess, Kelly Leigh.

There will be a magnificent craft fair in the Guildhall so you can pick up some unique Christmas gifts and a number of different rides on the High Street to entertain the younger visitors, as well as snow machines for an added magical feel.

There will also be a treat for Star Wars fans, when Darth Vader and some of his Storm Troopers join the fun. They will be fighting it out with the Carnival Princess for the honour of performing the grand switch on.

For a festive and fulsome evening of fun, you can bring your friends and family to the Guildhall in Chard from 6pm and start you yuletide in style.

A traditional folk Feast

Belshazzar's Feast

BELSHAZZAR'S Feast start with traditional English music, add a touch of classical and jazz, throw in a bit of pop and music hall, and top it off wry humour for a unique live experience that has made them one of the most popular duos in folk music. They take to the road this November and December with their much-loved seasonal show.

Now in their twenty-first year together, Paul Sartin and Paul Hutchinson of Belshazzar's Feast bring a wealth of talent to the stage.

Paul Sartin was a member of the multi-BBC Radio 2 Award-winning big band Bellowhead, and of Faustus. Consultant and Director of the Andover Museum Loft Singers, he is author of 'Community Choirs Collection – Folk' publshed by Faber Music, an editor of music publications, and a BASCA-nominated composer whose commissions include works for the Central School of Speech and Drama, the Choir of Somerville College, Oxford, Streetwise Opera, and most recently, the BBC Radio 4 series 'Playing the Skyline'.

Paul Hutchinson's love of fusion music originates from his days in the renowned Celtic jazzers, Hoover the Dog. Pagoda Project, with jazz clarinetist, Karen Wimhurst, is the next exciting chapter in his musical journey providing a vehicle for his own compositions. Their debut album received the only 5 Star review in the March edition of Songlines and glowing tributes from amongst others, FRoots. Paul is resident tutor at Cecil Sharp House, Halsway Manor, Benslow Music Centre and Marlborough College. He has a keen interest in and knowledge of 17th and 18th Century dance music which has resulted in tours to Europe and America.

Belshazzar's Feast received a coveted nomination for the Best Duo Award at the 2010 BBC Folk Awards and are regulars at folk festivals across the summer, with touring including a popular annual Christmas tour of seasonal songs and tunes. They have released a series of critically acclaimed albums across their career, the latest being The Whiting's On The Wall (2014/Unearthed), a live album recorded over the course of two concerts at The Pound in Corsham.

Belshazzar's Feast play live at The David Hall, South Petherton on Saturday, December 17th. Tickets are available by calling 01460 240340 or from www.thedavidhall.org.uk the Christmas gift buying season gets off to a crafty start at Ilminster Arts Centre, with a new fair dedicated to West Country makers who are inspired by vintage textiles.

Vintage, with a modern twist

The show, curated under the umbrella of the 'Talent for Textiles' group, will be feature some vintage haberdashery and textiles as usual but the focus will be on skilled artisans who use vintage textiles in their work, incorporating fragments of vintage embroidery, linens and haberdashery to create unique and characterful pieces.

Some of the makers use age-old techniques but combine them with a modern twist to make items that sit happily in the contemporary home setting. All the artists are from the West Country

The fair will appeal anyone who loves beautiful things, as well as being an ideal place to discover unique, handcrafted Christmas presents, of the sort that you really cannot find on the high street.

Come along and enjoy unusual, top quality local craftsmanship, and don't forget the Café will be open too, serving tea, coffee and delicious light lunches!

The fair takes place on Thursday, December 1st, 9.30am-3pm, and admission is free.

Jazz Armada sails into Ilminster

IT'S TIME to light the beacons, and finish that game of bowls … The Cornish Armada Jazz Band sails into Ilminster Arts Centre on Friday, December 2nd for an evening of top notch traditional jazz.

Led by Roger Marks, the band have been together for more than twenty-five years and have long enjoyed the spotlight at the forefront of Britain's traditional jazz scene, attracting enthusiastic audiences around the jazz festival scene. Now it's Ilminster's turn to experience the 'best in the west'.

With the 'crew members' of this musical Armada being drawn from a number of orchestras, bands and groups based in the southwest, the band is revered for the musicianship of its players. Roger Marks' philosophy as a leader (or should that be 'skipper'?) is to use his musicians' fulsome talents to create a unique style of traditional jazz, free from constraint or taboo, and to perform it with great skill, verve and enthusiasm.

The Cornish Armada Jazz Band play at Ilminster Arts Centre at the Meeting House on Friday, December 2nd, at 8pm. Tickets are £14, and a pre-show supper is available at 7pm for £13, but must be pre-booked.

Advance booking is strongly recommended for what promises to be a hugely enjoyable night for trad jazz fan. For tickets please contact the Box Office on 01460 54973.

Arts Centre's Christmas cracker

ILMINSTER ARTS CENTRE'S annual Christmas exhibition returns with an enticing display of contemporary crafts by selected local makers. This year's edition opens its doors on Monday, November 28th and offers a cornucopia of unusual gift for all ages, including presents for children and items that will delight even the hardest to buy for friend or relation.

With free parking right on the doorstep, visitors can browse and buy at their own pace without having to worry about the parking meter, while the Arts Centre's popular Gallery Café is a destination in its own right and the perfect place to admire your purchases over a light lunch and a cup of freshly brewed Fairtrade coffee or tea. The well-stocked Craft Shop offers further shopping opportunities and its large selection of artists' cards is ideal for all those post-Christmas thank you letters!

The exhibition continues until December 23rd.

Cantamus presents 'All so still', a concert of Christmas songs

WEST DORSET choir Cantamus will be giving three concerts across the area during December.

The programme, 'All so still', is packed full of beautiful seasonal songs that are sure to get audiences in the mood for Christmas. The earliest offering is three pieces for men's voices from the Montpellier Codex, an intriguing compilation of 13th-century polyphonic works; in a sublime contrast this will be followed by three pieces for women's voices from Benjamin Britten's haunting Ceremony of Carols. The concert will also include a tribute to composer and arranger David Willcocks, who died last year; the eponymous 'All so still' and two other carols by 20th-century composer Richard Lloyd; and the favourite of many Cantamus members, 'O Magnum Mysterium' by Morten Lauridsen. Lovers of more traditional music will enjoy 'Wachet auf!' ('Sleepers wake!') by JS Bach and 'A tender shoot' by Otto Goldschmidt.

Cantamus was formed in 2012 and gives three series of concerts each year – spring, summer and Christmas – across the area.

The concerts are as follows: The Church of Our Lady, Queen of Martyrs, and St Ignatius, North Chideock, Saturday, December 3rd at 7pm; The Church of St Mary Magdalene, Loders, Saturday, December 10 at 7pm; St John the Baptist Church, Hawkchurch, Tuesday, December 20th at 7.30pm. Tickets are £8 on the door and include refreshments.

Pulman's Property View™

5 TIPS FOR BUYING A PROJECT

By Julia Gray, Press Association

▲ Yui Mok/PA Photos.

1. When prices have risen and buyers on a budget have been pushed further and further out, this can lead to once undesirable areas becoming more popular and improving as a result. If you can spot improving areas, or areas subject to investment and infrastructure changes, it often pays to get on the local property ladder before prices rise. However, if you're concerned about resale values, be careful not to spend more on a property than it's worth.

2. Even if an unmodernised property seems like a steal, remember that it may cost more to buy and renovate than somewhere that's more expensive to buy but needs less work. This is where research comes in. You'll need to find out how long the property's been on the market, what position the seller's in, what comparable properties are selling for and what property prices are doing locally, etc, as well as how much the property will cost to renovate. Ideally, pay for a full structural survey (the RICS Building Survey) and then get quotations for the work needed so you're realistic about the cost. To get an idea of the cost before making an offer, go round the property with a good builder.

3. Some properties are in such a bad state only cash buyers are welcome. This can also be the case with properties of unusual construction, so if you need a mortgage, you're more limited to what you can buy. Mortgage lenders usually expect the property to be habitable and although lots of people buy unmodernised properties with a mortgage without a problem, lenders sometimes retain some of the loan until essential repairs are done.

4. Property repossessions are one way to find a bargain, although you may not want to cash in on someone else's misery. You have to move quickly when buying a repossession, as the seller usually wants to exchange contracts and complete the sale within weeks. They'll check you're in a position to do this before accepting, or even considering, an offer, so it's not a route open to all buyers. It's also a stressful way to buy, as the property remains on the market until exchange of contracts.

5. Moving quickly applies to buying properties at auction too. You have to exchange contracts on the spot, and complete within a set time, often 28 days, so buying with a mortgage isn't always possible. Auctions are full of renovation projects and can be a good place to find bargains, providing you don't get carried away in the heat of the moment and pay too much.

Spotlight On My Service

NICK MITTON GARDEN SERVICES

I was brought up in Chard having attended Holyrood School. I left the area in 1986 and moved to the Chanel Islands. There I worked as a full time Fire Fighter at the local Fire Station. Working shifts enabled me to start my own Gardening business. This then led to full time gardening in 2005.

My partner Suzanne and I decided to move back to Somerset last year, as all of our children have now grown up and are living in the UK.

For potential customers, I can offer a straight forward garden maintenance service. This would include: Mowing, strimming, borders, pruning, power washing and hedge cutting, etc.

We also remove and dispose your garden waste as included as part of our service.

We promise an honest, reliable and professional service and can provide references if required from previous satisfied customers.

If following the last few months of wet weather, your garden is starting to appear like a rugged marshland, we can help you get it ready for the Spring and Summer. Let me help you get your garden Barbeque and party ready!

We offer a highly competitive rate of £15.00 per hour, please do not hesitate to give me a call on: 07811910153 or 01460 391427

SW PENINSULA LEAGUE

Axminster Town 1
Galmpton Utd 1

Division One (E)

AFTER three-week lay-off a Jonny Hurford goal earned Axminster Town a point from Saturday's visit by next-to-bottom Galmpton United.

The visitors went close in the opening exchanges with an effort that struck the post. But it was Axminster who found net first – on two occasions!

Ian Burns' side rounded off a move to force the ball home only for the referee to call play back to an earlier infringement on an Ax player in the build-up. Undetered, up stepped Hurford to clip home his third goal of the season from the resulting free-kick.

Richard Farkins equalised early in the second half and the points were shared despite both sides crafting decent opportunities to snatch a winner.

With just one win in their last five matches Axminster, now fifth in the table, head off to Mill Marsh Park to take on Bovey Tracey next Saturday (3pm).

Division 5

Beer Albion Reserves 1
Royal Oak 3

THE Beer Albion Reserve team took on runaway leaders Royal Oak in a Division Five top vs bottom clash on Saturday writes Richard Honnor.

The hosts put in a spirited display against their talented young opponents before going down 3-1 in a close contest.

The Fishermen made a great start and went 1-0 ahead on five minutes when Ed Karajev cut inside the full back and unleashed powerful strike past the Royal Oak keeper from 15 yards.

Beer almost increased their lead on the quarter hour when Adam Brewer's volley just missed the target. But a minute later Royal Oak's Nathan May found himself one-on-one with Beer keeper Henry Bartlett and coolly slotted home the equaliser.

The visitors were now hitting their straps and a fine solo effort from Kieron Smith was well saved by Bartlett.

Beer were often at full stretch to cope with the Oak's pacey wingers but with Andrew Foster and Robert Adkin marshalling the defence well, and Ollie Paget and Mike Wheeler working hard in midfield, the Fishermen were making a real contest of it.

The home side again went close on 38 minutes Joel Seward's shot was cleared off the line following a corner. But as the half drew to a close Beer had two lucky escapes. First they conceded a penalty when full back Aaron Wain brought down a Royal Oak forward, but striker Jake Messenger's spot-kick hit the post. Then, on the stroke of half time, Foster cleared off the line with Beer's defence in disarray.

Beer continued to compete well in the second half but, with only one attacking option, the tireless Joel Seward, they carried very little threat to Royal Oak's goal.

The Fishermen inevitably tired as the half wore on and Royal Oak went 2-1 in front on 63 minutes through Kieron Smith after the Beer defence was caught in possession.

On 78 minutes Bartlett made another good save to keep the home side in with a chance. But the game was put beyond Beer's reach on 80 minutes when Harry Choules made it 3-1 when he spotted Bartlett off his line and lobbed the Beer keeper from 30 yards.

However, the Fishermen didn't give up and almost reduced the arrears on 87 minutes when a 20-yard strike from full back John Adkin went narrowly over the bar.

The Royal Oak manager conceded that this had been their toughest game so far this season and if they continue to show the same resolve, Beer would soon be off the bottom of the table.

Sponsor Clinton Estates awarded man-of-the-match to Seward who worked selflessly up front.

Next Saturday Beer Albion welcome Clyst Valley to the Furzebrake in the Macron Premier Division.

The Fishermen will be hoping to reverse the narrow 2-1 defeat they suffered in the reverse fixture at the start of the season.

Kick off is 2.15pm and match sponsor is John Wheeler Ltd.

Millwey Rise 1
Crediton Utd Reserves 3

MILLWEY'S defence were opened up in the second minute of this game when a Crediton forward put the ball in the net without a challenge being made writes Dick Sturch.

The visitors were by far the stronger throughout most of the first half but Millwey clung on to go into the break only one goal in arrears.

Unfortunately, in the latter stages of the half Nathan Wormsley had sustained a hamstring injury. He was replaced by Alex Rocket who made an immediate impact with some strong tackles and accurate distribution.

Millwey were again undone a few minutes into the second half as they were still trying to arrange a wall when Crediton scored from a quickly taken free kick. This caused some controversy as the referee had not blown his whistle when the ball was struck but it was allowed to stand.

The visitors' final goal came from a cross which was met with a strong header at the back post which gave keeper Nathan Hoole no chance.

But from this point Millwey continuously attacked the visitors goal and were certainly the superior team in the final quarter.

They were rewarded in the 80th minute when Matty Lewis stabbed the ball home after a goalmouth scramble.

Zak Meaker had a great game, for Rise together with keeper Hoole and Shane Featherstone and Sam Burke in midfield who never gave up the pursuit of victory.

Injured striker Levi Hoole was at the game and is hopeful of returning to the team before Christmas.

This would certainly be a welcome step forward into the New Year.

Round-up

A THIRD successive home defeat leaves UPOTTERY perched in in eighth spot in the Premier Division table.

The latest reverse saw visitors Newtown St Cyres clamber out of the bottom three with a 3-2 win.

COLYTON remain third in Division One after a 5-1 drubbing of relegation-haunted Bickleigh. Nathan Maddocks fired the Tanners ahead in the fifth minute and they never looked back.

Maddocks was then forced off through injury and was replaced by Jack Richards who quickly made his presence felt when he doubled the lead. George Richards made it 3-0 before the visitors pulled one back before half-time.

An own goal restored the hosts' three-goal cushion and Marc Potter rounded off the scoring off with a fine finish.

"We were more convincing than last week," said Coly player-manager who had a mention for 50-year-old assistant manager Gary Bridge who was forced to play for the entire second half due to injuries and put in a MoM performance at left back.

LYME REGIS bounced back from last week's defeat, their first at the Davey Fort in a year, with a 6-2 home win over Withycombe Reserves.

After an even opening 20 minutes two goals in a minute from Rhys Hayter and Cody Bowditch put The Seasiders in the driving seat.

Sixteen-year old Bowditch, who put in a sparkling performance on the left wing, made it 3-0 at half-time.

Tom Williams pulled one back for Withy after keeper Will Meech had parried a long range shot.

But Lyme restored their three-goal cushion when Dan Baggs curled home a low shot from the edge of the box.

Withy kept plugging away in a second-half downpour and Williams grabbed his second to make it 4-2.

But the hosts weren't to be denied and Steve Batey, back after a spell with Uplyme, sealed the win before Bowditch, fittingly completed the scoring in the 76th minute.

SEATON TOWN RESERVES came out on top in the Division Seven local derby with Josh French (2), Luke Thurlow (2), Max Richardson and Spencer Hill on target in a 6-0 win over COLYTON RESERVES.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

TEN goals were shared at Hawkchurch where the hosts grabbed a useful Division One point with a last minute equaliser in a topsy-turvy encounter with Forton Rangers.

Early goals from Dan Richards and James Melville had the Hawks soaring. But Forton turned things around to lead 3-2 at half-time.

Gavin Herrod found the top corner to make it 3-3 before Melville struck again to put the hosts back in front.

Back came Forton and two late goals appeared to have won the match only for Melville to pounce on a keeping fumble and make 5-5 at the final whistle. Andy Stevenson (2), Robbie Walker, Elliot Richards and Chris Warry netted for Forton.

Meanwhile, FARWAY UNITEDs'; Diviison two promotion hopes were dented by a 3-2 defeat ata rivals Winsham Utd Reserves.

Finally, a goal from player-manager Matt Hurford couldn't save Farway United Reserves as they crashed out of the Bill Bailey Cup beaten 5-1 at Chard Rangers Reserves.

Hi Q still unbeaten

DIVISION One leaders Hi Q took on HNC Hot shots and, with Sadie Moran playing well, led 20-10 at half way.

During the final two quarters Hannah Vicary inspired HNC and they scored well enough to earn a point from their 24-39 defeat.

Flamingos kept the pressure with a 41-21 win against Ford &Pentecost Panthers with the Panthers picking up another valuable point from their defeat. Players for special mention in the match were Olivia Warwick for Flamingos and Anna Benson for the Panthers.

Meanwhile there were close results in three of the games in Division Two but Blackdown retained their 100 per cent record with a comfortable 30-10 win against Pixies. Rose Tucker stole the show for Blackdown whilst Heather Beviss was the star for Pixies.

Sidmouth Toucans had a tough game against Otter Valley with the Valley opening up a 7-5 lead at quarter time. By half way Toucans were 12-11 in front thanks to good work from Tania Vine and they then increased their advantage to 16-13 before Vicky Russell inspired an Otter fight back which fell just short in a 21-22m defeat.

Tip Top Trees had a similarly close game against JD Tyres. 3Ts led from the start but their advantage was never more than four goals. A third quarter flourish saw JD come back to 12-14 down with Jenny Bryant in top form.

The final quarter went goal for goal with 3Ts holding out to win by 21-19 with Aimee Vine doing well.

The match between the bottom two sides saw Beer Blazers, with Rose Bennett playing well, race into a 5-1 lead against Swaggermamas. The Mamas fought back and at half way it was all square at 8-8. Jo Mitchell stood out for the Mamas as they entered the final period 14-13 ahead and they maintained the momentum to win 18-15.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS
with Dave Mutter

THERE were a fantastic 141 entrants for last Saturday's Seaton Park Run 5K with several new runners taking part and one of those runners, AVR's Jake Smith was the winner, blasting around in 16:10.

Marcus Albano from CSSC Sports & Leisure was 2nd, 18:29 and Matthew Gauld 3rd, 19:18. There were 25 AVR's in total and special mention to Jonathan Day who ran for the 1st time since a lower back injury six months ago forced him to stop running, he was 141st in 24:05.

Of course, the parkrun series is not just about the quick runners, it's there to get people active, so why not have a go yourself next week? See www.parkrun.org.uk/seaton/ for more info and how to enter.

Chard battling qualities rewarded with deserved point

Tiverton 2 Chard A 2

WHAT a difference seven days make. After last week's inept performance Chard 2nd XI rediscovered its competitive spirit to take a point at Tiverton and to extend their unbeaten run to six games.

Based upon the experience of this match, the home side's previous 100 per cent record and reputation for high scoring seems heavily reliant upon partisan officiating of a type Chard have not had to endure for some considerable time.

To their credit, the team avoided reacting to a string of extraordinary decisions, only losing Trevor Goss to the sin bin for attempting to make a lofted pass. The ball struck a Tiverton player and was deemed so serious a misdemeanour as to warrant his banishment for a good five minutes.

Chard had few opportunities to venture into their opponents' D but made the most of it when they did. Goss fed a pass to Harvey Dening who slipped the ball through the advancing keeper's legs to take the lead midway through the first half.

This spurred Tiverton into coming forward and, with some swift interplay, they carved open Chard's defence for a shot Richard Green had no chance of saving.

Green was to have one of his busier afternoons and made some brave blocks and fine reaction saves as the pressure was piled on.

All square at half time, the message from James Spurdle was to keep up the same level of effort and maintain composure.

Spurdle set a captain's example in the latter, despite being on the receiving end of some more weird and not so wonderful decisions.

Chard were not awarded a single penalty corner in the entire match, against Tiverton's 20 or more.

The pressure on Chard's defence was intense and the home side took what seemed an inevitable lead with a follow up effort from one of their corners.

It looked as though Chard's brave resistance was broken and they had to withstand two further penalty corners immediately after conceding.

However, from another rare foray into Tiverton's D, Dening prodded in the equaliser after good work from Gary Wheaton.

There was still a quarter of an hour to play and Chard knew what to expect. Arthur Critchley was outstanding in the centre of the back four and veterans Paul Tratt and Steve Mahoney are made for the backs-to-the-wall scrap which followed.

Nick Liggins exemplified the bodies on the line approach required as the defence was stretched to its limits but refused to break.

The increasing desperation of the decision making in the dying minutes to try to secure a home win was as farcical as it was a disgrace.

Tiverton's own desperation led to some wayward shooting. Chard richly deserved their point and the elation at the final whistle showed how much it meant to the entire team.

Whiteout! Snow stops play at Honiton

HONITON with John Pawley
THREE newcomers were welcomed to the Tuesday Mixed last week, when the format was a 'Four Clubs and a Putter' Greensome.

As so frequently happens, despite the limited number of clubs, there were some very respectable scores.

In first place with 41 points were Jan Portlock & Paul Ritchie, closely followed by Sue Ritchie & Mike Delaney with 40. Third and fourth places were decided on count-back, Andrea Squire & Peter Clarke's 39 just edging Cathy Uttley & Rob Sexton into fourth.

The Ladies held their annual Christmas Fayre last week. This was open to visitors and members and included a Coffee Morning with nine holes of golf before the event.

There was terrific response from local clubs as well as a whole group from Cricket St Thomas which resulted in more than 60 visitors teeing off alongside the members.

The ladies were then able to purchase a variety of gifts including hand-made pottery, jewellery, knitting, home made produce, and hampers.

Jenny and Nick Raison donated a home made Christmas cake decorated with penguins on a ski slope which was raffled for the Lady Captain's charity – the Devon Freewheelers.

Friday's Seniors turned up ready for a competition where they were restricted to three clubs and a putter.

Much deliberation was used in defining exactly which grouping of clubs suited each player before they arrived at their allocated tee and slot time, and set off.

Around half an hour into the day and the heavens opened up with a deluge of snow!

Many players were on their way into the clubhouse even before the horn was sounded to abandon play.

AXE CLIFF with Peter Motson
THE Seniors section played their November Winter League match with some close results.

In first spot were J Mant & G Cox with 34 points and in 2nd were D Weston & P McGuire with 33. Also with 33 points were P Hornsby & D Lacey in 3rd place. J Mant scored the only 2.

Meanwhile, the Ladies section played their final County Prize competition last week which in a stableford format.

First place went to Helen Kenworthy with 35pts beating Margaret Kenchington on count back. In 3rd place with 27 was Sandra Walker.

The Ladies also played the first round of their Winter League, a 15-hole Stableford.

It was a close competition with Jill Wellington pipping Pauline Willis on count back, both scoring an excellent 31pts. In 3rd spot was Margaret Kenchington with 28.

CRICKET ST THOMAS with Bert Robinson
THE weather interfered with the Seniors golf during the week which culminated in the second round of the winter league program being abandoned on Friday due to snow which rendered the greens unplayable, much to the frustration of several teams who had decent scores at that stage.

On Monday, 63 Seniors competed in a three-man Hassle event.

The large field of 21 teams meant that the tee times were extended throughout the day which favoured the early starters with the rain falling later on.

◆ CHILLY: There was an Arctic look about Honiton golf course on Friday

However, some fine scores were recorded. Phil Dewar's team managed to take the honours with a net score of 57.33, a lead of a mere 0.17 of a shot over George Willerton's side who finished second.

Late starters Barrie Heath's team scored a commendable net 60 in the worsening weather to finish in third place.

The annual Turkey Trot was held on Wednesday with 50 Seniors taking part.

There was keen competition with prizes at stake. The Division One competition was especially tight with three competitors involved in a close finish. Richard Forster was leading in the clubhouse with a commendable net par 70.

Later in the day, both Chris Basterfield and Roger Stone returned scores of two under par 68 with the latter taking the honours with a better back nine.

John Wallis took the honours in Division Two – also with two under par – with both Stuart Pope and Mick Aldridge scoring net par 70.

◆ ACES: Members of two bridge clubs from Honiton, together with those from Tipton St John and Ottery St Mary, met recently at Mountbatten Park to compete for the Barry Williamson Memorial Plate. The Trophy was donated by Mr Williamson's family, following his death two years ago, in recognition of the great pleasure that he gained from his membership of the four clubs. Eighteen pairs competed and the winners, by a narrow margin, were Barry Cooper & Bruno Hanoman, from Honiton Bridge Club who are pictured above receiving the trophy from Peter Crawford, a previous chairman of both the Honiton and Wednesday Bridge Clubs.
